One Source Networks Ranks No. 20 on Lead411's Technology 200 List

The Company achieved its top 20 ranking with a 2008 – 2010 Growth of 586.644%

SAN ANTONIO, TX. November 1, 2011-- One Source Networks \(OSN\), a managed voice and data solutions provider for the large enterprise market, announces its position as number 20 in Lead411's 2011 Technology 200 list. In its second year, the Tech 200 list ranks technology companies with the highest percent of revenue growth from 2008 to 2010. Lead411 calculates revenue growth by percentages vs. dollar growth. With a growth percentage of 586.644%, One Source Networks is the only telecommunications service provider in the top twenty.

One Source Networks attributes its growth to 'recruiting the best team top to bottom,' according to Ernest Cunningham, President and CEO of OSN. OSN's mission is to collaborate with its customers by listening to their needs and providing technology solutions that directly address their issues without limiting their services to one vendor. "We not only provide our people with the best tools to service our customers, but our customers also receive improved performance, flexibility and cost savings," adds Cunningham.

All Tech 200 companies are privately held, U.S. based organizations with at least $500,000 million in revenue in 2010. Finalists are from the following industries: Software, Hardware, Internet, Media, Advertising, Wireless, Telecom, IT Services, eCommerce, or Consulting. As part of the application, participants were given a survey about their marketing spend, funding, ROI and overall outlook. Like, One Source Networks, 60.2% of Tech 200 applicants had never received funding of any kind and that 84% consider themselves profitable.
